

Praise For Sea Pearls!

Sea Pearls, Natural Reusable Sea Sponge Tampons – the revolutionary new form of sanitary protection for forward thinking intelligent UK women is receiving rave reviews from the UK media...

“More and more woman are giving up conventional sanitary products because of irritation, the potentially fatal toxic shock syndrome and worries about the environment.” Bella

“They’re re-usable for around six months, making them eco-friendly and money saving” Scarlet Magazine

“It may seem revolting to some, to clean your sponge yourself but it’s still not as revolting as the environmental implications and health risks associated with the use of conventional sanitary products” Prediction Magazine

“They are a safe, efficient and easy-to-use alternative to ordinary single use tampons. Kinder to the environment, your pocket and your body” Diva Magazine

“Artificial fibres in conventional tampons can be abrasive and have a drying effect, upsetting your pH balance, try using Sea Pearls” Health and Fitness Magazine

“The average woman uses 17,000 fibrous sanitary products in her lifetime, ending up in landfills or our seas and rivers. All the more reason to hail a new environmentally-friendly alternative sanitary product, Sea Pearls” H&E Naturist
