

UK Women Love Sea Pearls!

UK Women are raving about Sea Pearls, Natural Reusable Sea Sponge Tampons – the revolutionary new form of sanitary protection for forward thinking intelligent women!

"I was always very sceptical but my Mum gave me a Sea Sponge in an emergency... I can't believe I was so reluctant and didn't just trust her - thought it would be icky but it isn't at all. You just have to get your head round it first. I love the Sea Pearls" Kayleighanne (16)

"Sea Pearls are my saviour! I've been a thrush sufferer all my adult life but since using Sea Pearls I haven't been hit with a single bout of it!!! My life has been transformed from miserable itching fiend to normal human being... I can't thank or recommend Sea Pearls enough. Every woman should know about these little natural wonders." Cath (37)

"I'm an aerobics instructor and I like to change my tampon after every class. With Sea Pearls - I can! They're not drying, so removing them frequently doesn't drag. I love that they make me feel so clean and fresh. Finally, I'm in control of my periods" Charmaine (23)

"I'm officially a Sea Sponge addict! I'm using my second set and I will never, no you didn't hear me... NEVER go back! I love the fact that all I need is one little sponge and I'm good to go. Can you possibly think of an easier way to live? Not to mention the money I save, the pollution I no longer create and the chemicals I no longer jam into my body every month! Thank you Sea Pearls" Cathy (42)
